Cons. Denison Leads Revival In Uraniums

TORONTO (CP) — Base metals and western oils were the major losers as the stock market slipped back for the fourth straight session in moderately-active trading.

Uraniums were strong and golds were narrowly ahead but the rest of the market dropped.

Only one of the five most active speculative mines gained, Can-Erin up 19 cents at $1.27.

Uraniums bounded ahead from the open with Consolidated Denison the leader rising 1¾ at 14¾. Much of the Denison buying was reported coming from the United States.

Among industrials Argus Corp. had the big loss, off 3½ at 38½.

Hudson Bay Mining dipped 2 at 61 as senior base metals lost.

Consolidated Mining lost 1 at 20¼ and International Nickel eased ¾ at 90½.

Hollinger gained ⅞ at 33⅞ and Kerr-Addison was up ⅛ at 19⅜ to lead golds. McIntyre, however, lost 1⅛ at 87⅜. Canadian gold kilo bars closed at $34.02 to $34.14 an ounce.

Pembina was the big loser in western oils, down 1¼ at 9. Canadian Husky dipped ⅝ at 11½.

Rally Was Mild

MONTREAL (CP) — Papers and base metals, the day's biggest losers, put on a mild rally shortly before closing but the Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges still closed moderately lower. Trading was active.

Among papers and base metals Abitibi declined ⅝ at 36⅛ and Nickel lost ¾ at 91.

Textiles and refining oils were mixed; while beverages, steels, construction and foods were fractionally lower.

Among active issues Webb and Knapp gained 15 cents at 365, Massey lost ⅛ at 14⅛, Bell was up ⅛ at 40⅜, Aluminium declined ⅛ at 27⅞, Dominion Tar was off ⅛ at 17¼, Brazil was unchanged at 6⅛, Steinbergs advanced ¼ at 28 and Algoma was down ¼ at 37¾.

London Stock Prices

LONDON (CP)—The stock market maintained a firm undertone and gains predominated in most sections.

Industrials continued to claim most attention and selective buying persisted. Steel shares continued to improve and paper shares rallied after Friday's setback.

Dollar stocks reflected Friday's irregular close on Wall Street.

Gilt-edged securities showed little change and foreign bonds were quietly irregular.

Gold shares were mixed. Coppers were quietly firm and oil shares were mainly higher.

Grain Prices

WINNIPEG (CP) — Trade reports that five cargoes of Canadian barley have been sold to Poland highlighted activity on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. The sale represented about 2,800,000 bushels.

Although barley trade in the pit was fair, the sale to Poland had little reflection. Domestic shippers made purchases in both oats and barley. Prices held to narrow limits.

Flax was irregular under commission house buying and light offerings.
